He is not here; he has risen, just as he said.

Come and see the place where he lay. Then go quickly and tell his disciples: 'He has risen from the dead and is going ahead of you into Galilee. There you will see him.' Now I have told you."

So the women hurried away from the tomb, afraid yet filled with joy, and ran to tell his disciples. 9 Suddenly Jesus met them. "Greetings," he said. They came to him, clasped his feet and worshiped him. 10 Then Jesus said to them, "Do not be afraid. Go and tell my brothers to go to Galilee; there they will see me."

For by grace you have been saved. through faith

—and this is not from yourselves, it is the gift of God — not by works, so that no one can boast. For we are God's handiwork, created in Christ

Scripture cannot be broken

what about the one whom the Father set apart as his very own and sent into the world?

For by grace you have been saved through faith, and that not of yourselves; it is the gift of God, not of works, lest anyone should boast

Welcome in the name of our risen and ascended Lord Jesus Christ! We pray that the Spirit would use this website to reveal the truth of sin and salvation, to draw more sinners to the comfort of God's Word, and to ignite a desire to grow as a disciple of our Lord Jesus. If you wish to learn more or are in need of pastoral care, feel free to contact us.

Messengers from John the Baptist

The disciples of John reported all these things to him. And John, 19 calling two of his disciples to him, sent them to the Lord, saying, "Are you the one who is to come, or shall we look for another?" 20 And when the men had come to him, they said, "John the Baptist has sent us to you, saying, 'Are you the one who is to come, or shall we look for another?'"

You wait all year for Christmas, you rush down early in the morning, you tear off the wrapping paper and there in the box is . . . a pair of socks. Disappointed? Some of the older people in the congregation are thinking that's not a disappointment, that's what I want for Christmas. For that matter I actually gave my wife some socks earlier this month she was pretty excited about them. So yeah if you actually like getting socks for Christmas you can substitute whatever would be most disappointing to you.
